

YOU ARE INVITED TO A
SPECIAL PROGRAM BY DR. DAVID AGUS

FUTURE HEALTH ON LĀNA‘I

August 5, 2017 | 11:00a – 12:00p

At Hale Keaka Lāna‘i Theater

Dr. Agus will review the tenets of health from his perspective and re-view the game plan for Mr. Ellison’s efforts to improve the health and empower the citizens of Lāna‘i for future health.

Also, learn about the new Tele-Medicine Kiosk, at Lāna‘i’s Rainbow Pharmacy (operated through HMSA On-line).

David B. Agus is a professor of medicine and engineering at the University of Southern California’s Keck School of Medicine and Viterbi School of Engineering. He is the founding director and CEO of the Lawrence J. Ellison Institute for Transformative Medicine of USC. A medical oncologist, Dr. Agus leads a multidisciplinary team of researchers dedicated to the development and use of technologies to guide doctors in making health-care decisions tailored to individual needs, and directs a National Cancer Institute Physical Sciences in Oncology Center at USC. An international leader in new technologies and approaches for personalized healthcare, Dr. Agus serves in leadership roles at the World Economic Forum and other prestigious organizations. He is also a CBS News contributor. Dr. Agus’ three books “The End of Illness”, “A Short Guide to a Long Life” and “The Lucky Years: How to Thrive in the Brave New World of Health” are all New York Times and international bestsellers.

Sara Mock Chew Connects with a Health Care Provider
Through the Tele-Med Service

